NOTICE REGARDING CALIFORNIA INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES ACT

Owner/Agent intends to request an investigative consumer report and/or consumer credit report regarding the Applicant's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. Under Section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code, the files maintained on you by the investigative consumer agency shall be made available to you during business hours and on reasonable notice, provided you furnish proper identification, as follows: (1) You may appear at the investigative consumer reporting agency identified below in person, (2) You may make a written request for a summary of the file to be provided over the telephone, or (3) You may make a written request for a summary of the file to be provided over the telephone. The agency may charge a fee, not to exceed the actual duplication costs, if you request a copy of your file. The agency is required to have personnel available to explain your file to you, and the agency must explain to you any coded information appearing in your file. If you appear in person, a person of your choice may accompany you, provide that this person furnishes proper identification. If you are accompanied by a person of our choosing the agency may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the investigative consumer purporting agency to discuss your file in the other person's presence. The agency that will prepare the repost(s) identified in this section is National Tenant Network, Inc. P.O. Box 1664, Lake Oswego, Or 97035 Phone: 1-800-228-0989 Email: Consumerrelations@ntnonline.com Website: https://ntnonline.com/consumers/

National Tenant Network, Inc. did not make the decision and cannot explain why the decision was made. You have the right to obtain a free copy of your report from NTN within 60 days and dispute any inaccurate or incomplete information.

Verification Guidelines:

All applicants will have a consumer reporting agency report and a credit report run. All applicants must have 80% positive on credit report. Any credit problems must be explained. All applicants receiving a government rent subsidy to assist in the payment of rent can choose to provide lawful, verifiable, alternative evidence of reasonable ability to pay rather than have housing provider rely on their credit report. Legal and verifiable gross monthly income combined for all applicants must be either (A) 3 times the monthly rent with 80% positive on credit or (B) 2.5 times monthly rent with 95% positive on credit and low outstanding debt to income. Self-employed applicants must provide documentation sufficient to confirm/verify income which could include a copy of their last year's tax return and/or bank statements and/or current year profit and loss statement.

Verifiable residential history where the residence has been properly maintained and the tenants did not cause a neighborhood nuisance. If you are renting, rental history must be verified by the property owner or the owners' licensed manager.

Have a valid Government Issued photo ID and provide a copy at the same time as the application.

Please note:

1. This application is for qualification and does not guarantee approval.
2. The application must be completely and legibly filled out and signed. Non-complete applications, or without payment of screening fee, will not be processed and the screen fee, if paid, will be returned.
3. The property will remain on the market during the verification process. Housing provider may receive more than one application. Housing provider shall return the entire screening fee if applicant is not selected for tenancy, regardless of the reason, within 7 days of selecting another applicant for tenancy or within 30 days of when the application was submitted, whichever occurs first
4. Denial of one applicant in a group will result in the denial of all applicants in the group.
5. AVR Properties will obtain credit and other reports that demonstrate your ability to pay and use the property properly. These reports include financial obligations, rental history, employment, assets and personal references.
6. The following examples may be cause for application denial:
   Judgments or liens, Unlawful detainer, Non-discharged bankruptcies, Unpaid child support
   Extensive disputed credit, Serious credit items more than 30 days late, Inaccurate or falsified information or verification
   Residential or employment information cannot be verified

There is a non-refundable $50 application fee per application. The sum of $_____was paid for the purpose of verifying the information submitted on the application to rent _____. The application fee covers $15.50 to obtain credit reports, eviction reports and other screening reports and $34.50 to process and verify screening information. It is understood that this sum is in no way to be considered a deposit to hold the dwelling.
